Conditions:

1. The client may make changes to the above details in writing, any time prior to seven (7) days before the function date. The client may also vary the above details by phone at any time, subject to the understanding that any risk of inaccuracy or confusion is then the responsibility of the client.
2. Cost free cancellations may be made in writing any time prior to seven (7) days before the function. Thereafter, a cancellation fee may apply. Should the client fail to notify Minimusic of a cancellation, the client accepts liability for the full cost of the service.
3. The Client accepts the responsibility of ensuring that the Minimusic DJ has easy access to the chosen venue for the purpose of loading equipment. Any parking, loading or entry fees must be paid by the client. Minimusic will not accept responsibility for delays to the commencement of the service arising from difficult access circumstances.
4. Estimated Time of Arrival of your DJ for setup is thirty (30) minutes prior to the booked start time. Music may then commence at the booked start time. If the loading situation or client requires setup to occur more than thirty (30) minutes before the booked start time an extra fee may apply.
5. The Client accepts the responsibility of ensuring that the venue for the function is free of prohibitive sound regulations that might interrupt or prevent the Minimusic service. In this event the client accepts liability for the full cost of the service.
6. The Client may request the use of 3rd party equipment (any sound system or component not provided by Minimusic). In doing so the Client accepts full responsibility for an outcome that may interrupt, deteriorate, or prevent the Minimusic service.
7. The Minimusic Music List is to be handed to the DJ at the function. Other music requests must be advised in writing prior to seven (7) days before the function to allow adequate time to conduct a search. Late or excessive music requests may attract a service fee.
8. Minimusic has Public Liability Insurance and takes all care in the provision of the service without responsibility for public liability claims, adverse environmental conditions and unforeseen circumstances. These may include, accidents to property or person, inclement weather, acts of violence, illegal activity, unstable floors, unsafe/wet/difficult access or restricted locations. In such events where interruption, deterioration or prevention of the Minimusic service is a result, the client accepts the full cost of the service and waives all rights to any type of compensation claim.
9. Discount bookings are subject to availability until such time as payment is received.
