Booking Terms:

COVID DOUBLE VACCINATION REQUIRED FOR ALL PASSENGERS
despite government rule changes to protect our guests and on board staff.

Deposits- 50% deposit to secure the booking . Final balance payable 14 days prior to your charter.

Security Bond - $2000 required just prior to your charter as a preauthorisation only on a credit card as will be in our terms and conditions sent in the booking.

Covid Booking Terms:

We will be operating according to the NSW Health advice regarding vaccination and guest capacities.

COVID Cancellation Policy:

If restrictions imposed by Government prevent your charter from going ahead, you will be offered either a postponement to another available date within a year, or a full refund (at Operator's discretion).

This policy comes into place with the following condition:

The Charter Boat booked is not able to operate as a service due to COVID-19 restrictions, which may include lock downs.

This COVID-19 Cancellation policy must be applied at least 7 days prior to the charter date.

If passengers are not able to attend due to Covid concerns this policy does not apply and standard terms and conditions apply.

If the organiser / contact for the booking return a positive Covid result and/ or if 25% or more of the guests attending return a positive Covid result, then we will work with the client and vessel operator to assess for a reschedule. All monies paid will be held as credit and a reschedule date must be arranged at earliest possible date within the current season. Additional costs such as wharf fees and staff charges that cannot be recouped may still apply. Any other reasons due to COVID-19 restrictions do not apply to this cancellation policy and standard terms and conditions would apply unless discussed otherwise.
