OzCat Damage on charter Ref-34469 Connie on 27th February 2022 at 3.50pm to 7.50pm  Damage acknowledged by charterer at end of charter  Details At the start of charter all guests were given a briefing about being sick inside the vessel, where they should go if they felt sick, who to ask for a bag and the cost to the organiser if someone breached our rules. These same instructions are plastered over the bathroom's walls in colour to prevent this eventuality. At the end of the charter an inspection was made of the sink in the rear toilet in the presence of Connie and others to find that someone had been sick in it that had caused to sink to be blocked. Because the group were on the whole a good group and the organiser Connie was lovely we agreed that we would keep the charges down to a	1	250.00	FRE	0.00	250.00

minimum but would depend on how long it took us to remove and clean the filters and to undo the hose clamps and flush the vomit out so the pipes and sink would flush as normal again. Normally we would charge around $400 to rectify the blockage and deal with all the vomit but we have in this instance charged $250 which Connie said she would be happy with.
